Hispanic Liturgical Ministry (Lay Lectors)
Worship Umbrella

Brief description of ministry: Proclaim the word of God in Holy Scripture to those gathering for the Hispanic Mass each Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Qualifications: A desire to proclaim the Lord's word to the congregation. An ability to read clearly with expression. Public speaking experience helpful.

Training: Meet for one hour the second Sunday of the month after Mass.

Time Commitment: Arrive 15 minutes before your scheduled Mass. Lectors are scheduled for approximately one Mass per month and listed as an alternate at a second Mass in a month. Lectors are expected to spend time during the week prior to their scheduled Mass reading and studying the scripture in preparation for the Mass. Lectors should prepare both readings in the event the other Lector is not present at Mass.

Miscellaneous: If a Lector is unable to be at a scheduled Mass, it is that person's responsibility to schedule a replacement.
